The background of the entire slide is a collage of 20 small, square images. These images are arranged in a 4x5 grid. They feature a variety of subjects: some show people's faces (mostly smiling or laughing), some show people's backs or hands, and others are abstract colorful geometric patterns (like triangles and polygons). The colors are vibrant and varied, including greens, yellows, oranges, reds, purples, and blues. The overall theme is one of diversity and positivity.
